

WHY NOT JOIN THE DELPHINIUM SOCIETY?

Registered Charity No. 259202

The Delphinium society exists to promote interest in delphiniums by publishing information on all aspects of delphinium cultivation and breeding and bring together people concerned with delphiniums as flowers for garden decoration, exhibition, floral art or as plants of scientific interest.

Membership of the Society brings:

- Free delphinium seeds on joining
- A superb Yearbook with over 100 pages of information and photographs
- An Autumn Bulletin
- The opportunity to buy special hand pollinated delphinium seed
- A chance to compete in or visit Society shows
- Outings to gardens with delphiniums or cultivation demonstrations
- A chance to participate in locals groups in: Kent, Yorkshire & Lincolnshire and Scotland

UK Subscription: £6 per year
